

One World, Many Cultures

Join us as we embark on an exciting new project: "One World, Many Cultures," designed to foster empathy and an appreciation of diverse cultures.

Intended for kids up to age 12, the programs will have an intergenerational appeal. Virtual programs can be viewed any time after their premiere dates on our YouTube channel, YouTube.com/WinfieldLibrary.

Craft Kits that go along with our craft programs may be picked up the week after each program premieres, during curbside pickup hours.

Chinese Dragon
Thursday, January 14
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

The dragon is an important figure in Chinese culture, symbolizing strength and good luck, so making one is a great Lunar New Year activity! Follow along to make your own dragon craft.

A Taste of China: Jiaozi
Thursday, January 15
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

Learn to make delicious steamed dumplings! Filled with meat and vegetables, jiaozi are a holiday favorite eaten at family feasts and during the New Year. Children will love making this traditional dish!

A Taste of China: Almond Jelly
Wednesday, January 20
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

Learn to make almond jelly, a sweet, refreshing dessert popular in Southern China. It's sure to become a family favorite!

Chinese Cherry Blossoms
Thursday, January 28
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

During Lunar New Year, it is customary to decorate houses throughout China with blooming flowers, which symbolize Spring and wishes for a prosperous new year. Join us to make your own cherry blossoms!

Book Buzz Zoom Club (Ages 8-12)

Live on Zoom

Saturday, February 6, 9:15 - 10:15 a.m.

We will be discussing Front Desk by Kelly Yang. Please register online at www.winfield.evanced.info to receive the meeting ID and password and to set up a curbside pick-up your copy of the book.

Kuba Dimensional Masks
Thursday, February 11
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

Learn about the heritage of different African regions where masks are used. Under the direction of Art with Ms. Choate, you will learn about symmetry and geometric patterns.

A Taste of Kenya: Chapati
Friday, February 12
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

Learn about Kenya's traditional chapati, a flat bread served with many dishes. With a few simple ingredients, learn to make chapati that are flaky, layered and delicious.

A Taste of Kenya: Maharagwe
Wednesday, February 17
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

Learn about Kenya's traditional maharagwe, a dish made with beans and other ingredients that, when combined with rich spices, have an out of this world flavor!

African Kente Cloth
Thursday, February 25
3:00 p.m.
Facebook & YouTube

Learn about kente cloth, a woven fabric that originates from Ghana. Learn how to weave and focus on color and pattern with the expert direction of Art with Ms. Choate.

Winfield Library
Nurturing your imagination

Look for more "One World, Many Cultures" events in spring 2021!